Profiles of Nominees for Bishop's Committee (3 year term):

Jason Addis: My family and I have been part of Good Samaritan since April 2017. In that time we have become active participants in Good Samaritan actively participating in our service projects. I have been able to serve on the Pathways to Vitality Committee. I look forward to continuing to grow spiritually with Good Samaritan.

Kevin Samples: Kevin and his wife, Deb, hail from the southwest Indiana town of Boonville, where they married 42 years ago. They moved to the Indianapolis area in 2000 and raised their 3 children. Prior to retirement as a Colonel, Kevin was in the Army National Guard for 36 years with 34 of it being a full-time federal civil servant. Kevin earned degrees in Social Science, Criminal Justice, and Law Enforcement. Kevin and Deb have been Brownsburg residents since 2012.

Profiles of Nominees for Diocesan Convention Delegates (1 year term):

Andrew Baum: I am an almost lifelong resident of Brownsburg, having moved here when I was three years old from Montezuma, Indiana. The reason for the move was my Presbyterian minister father was tasked with planting a new church in town. In February, I will have been employed thirty-three years as a technical services (cataloging) librarian with the Brownsburg Public Library. My mother, brother and I have been involved with Good Sam's since the very beginning.

Burnie Wilkins: Burnie is retired and works part-time to stay busy. She has been serving on the diocesan Episcopal Women's Ministries Council for 2 years and was appointed to be a Co-President effective January 1, 2018. Becoming more knowledgeable about the Episcopal diocese is high on her list of priorities.
