

Bishop's Committee

Susan Burt

Susan Burt has been nominated to become a part of the Bishops's Committee for a 3-year term. She is the incoming co-chair of the Budget and Finance committee for Good Sam's. Susan is a mother of three and grandmother of one. She is the Director of Finance and Business Administration for a small not-for-profit in Indianapolis. Susan has been a member of Good Samaritan since 2018 as well as a member of the Episcopal Church her entire life. Susan has been the clerk for the Bishop's Committee for the past year. She is very excited about the opportunity.

Katy Hilts

My name is Katy Hilts, and I am a lifelong Episcopalian and Hoosier. I grew up in northern Indiana, spent my undergrad years in southern Indiana at Hanover College, and after a brief stint in Chicago, settled in central Indiana fourteen years ago. I currently live in Avon with my husband Brandon and our two very active sons, Richie (5) and Wilson (6). I have a PhD in Health Policy and management and am a postdoctoral fellow in behavioral oncology at the IU School of Nursing. I joined Good Sam's almost five years ago now. After having visited several of the other Episcopal churches in the area, the moment I stepped into Good Sam's I immediately felt like I had found my home. I am very excited for the opportunity to further contribute to our church family and the work we do to not only serve each other, but our community.

Diocesan Convention Delegates

Mary Kay Conley

Mary Kay Conley lives on the north side of Indianapolis with her husband Brian Conley and Pembroke Welsh Corgi, Willow. She has been a member of Good Sam's since 2019 and is a member of the Worship Readers and Social Justice groups. She currently works as the Benefits Manager at Allegion, an 11,000-employee global security technology company with North American headquarters in Carmel, Indiana. Mary Kay is responsible for health and welfare and retirement benefit program plan execution and administration for the United States and Canada. Mary Kay holds a master's degree in human resource management from the Krannert Graduate School of Management at Purdue University and a bachelor's degree in organizational communication also from Purdue. She and Brian enjoy going to concerts and traveling.

Amy Dobbs

Natalie Rodriguez

Natalie Rodriguez lives on the westside of Indianapolis. She has attended Good Sam's for approximately four years and officially joined in 2021. She coordinates the Send A Card group on the Connections Team and is a member of the diocesan Episcopal Women's Council. Natalie is currently enrolled in Education for Ministry classes through St. Paul's Indianapolis. She currently works as the communications manager for the Indiana Department of Revenue. Her hobbies include crafts, board games, and biking. She and husband Joseph are parents to a blended family of four children ranging in age from 17-26.

Heidi Morris-Cass (alternate)

Heidi Morris-Cass has been involved with Good Samaritan as a leader of Going Deeper and previously as our Director of Adult Formation for five years. Heidi was ordained in January 2009 in another faith tradition and continues to serve the Church as the leader of our prayer ministry here at Good Sam's. She has also represented Good Sam's at Diocesan Convention for the past three years. Heidi grew up in central New York, has been a teacher of the Deaf/Blind for 35 years, and is mom to her 17 year old son, Alex.
